

2019 New Mexico Regulatory Deadlines

JAN
1

- > GHG Reporting Due
- > Pollution Prevention Plan Renewal (every 5 years)
- > NSPS OOOO Reports due for Hydraulically Fractured Wells

JAN
15

- > NSPS OOOO Annual Reports Due for the Period of October 15 – October 14

MAR
1

- > Tier II Report Due
- > NMED Excess Emissions Due

MAR
15

- > Bernalillo County Emission Inventory Reporting Due (SLEIS)

MAR¹
31

- > Annual Emissions Events and Scheduled Maintenance, Startup, and Shutdown Report
- > Stormwater Monitoring Reports
- > GHG Mandatory Reporting Rule Annual Report (e-GGRT)

APR
1

- > New Mexico Air Emissions Inventory Reporting (AEIR) Due

JUL
1

- > Toxic Release Inventory (TRI) Report Due

AUG
1

- > NMED Annual Hazardous Waste Fee Report

OCT
14

- > End of NSPS OOOO Reporting Period

OCT
30

- > OOOOa Annual Reports Due for the Period of August 2 - August 1

Things to Remember:

- Title V Annual Compliance Certification (Anniversary of Title V Permit Issuance)
- Title V Semi-Annual Monitoring Report (2nd Half of Previous Year, or Consistent with Anniversary of Title V Permit Issuance)

¹Please note that this date falls on a weekend. Trinity recommends that reports be submitted or postmarked by the due date to be considered on-time.

Contact us in Albuquerque at (505) 266-6611 to help prepare these reports.